BIS Guwahati to celebrate World Standards Day 2026 with focus on clean and affordable energy

The Assam Rising, Guwahati, October 13 : The Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS), Guwahati Branch Office, will celebrate World Standards Day 2026 tomorrow, October 14, at Aniyaa Edition, Guwahati, with a focus on SDG 7: Clean and Affordable Energy. This was informed by Shouvik Chanda, Director and Head, BIS Guwahati Branch Office, while addressing a press conference here today.Highlighting the significance of the occasion, Chanda emphasised the role of standardisation in ensuring product quality, consumer safety and sustainable development.He informed that tomorrow's event will feature a technical session on SDG 7, bringing together experts from academic and industry institutions, including the National Institute of Technology, Manipur; the National Institute of Technology, Arunachal Pradesh; the School of Energy Science and Engineering, IIT Guwahati; APDCL; and Indian Oil Corporation Limited, Guwahati Refinery. A special exhibition stall featuring products bearing the ISI mark will showcase the importance of quality assurance and conformity to Indian Standards.The celebration will bring together representatives from government departments, industry associations, academic and technical institutions, manufacturers and consumer organisations to promote awareness of Indian Standards, Shri Chanda added.During the press conference, BIS officials also highlighted various BIS initiatives, including the BIS CARE app, which enables consumers to verify the authenticity of ISI-marked and hallmarked products, check licence details and lodge grievances. They also outlined the various Quality Control Orders (QCOs) implemented to strengthen quality standards and safeguard consumer interests.

Man Arrested in Bongaigaon for Allegedly Extorting Money Using SSP's Name, Police Officers' Photos

The Assam Rising, Bongaigaon, October 13 : Bongaigaon Police have arrested a man for allegedly extorting money from people by misusing the name of the district's Senior Superintendent of Police (SSP) and photographs of police officers from different districts of Assam.The accused has been identified as Mehbub Alam, a resident of Jamunamukh in Hojai district. He was arrested following allegations that he had been demanding money from individuals, particularly those suspected of being involved in the drug trade and other intoxicant-related activities.According to the allegations, Alam allegedly used the names and photographs of police officers serving in different districts to intimidate individuals and pressure them into paying money. By allegedly impersonating or falsely invoking the authority of senior police officials, he sought to create the impression that he had official backing, enabling him to target potential victims.The alleged misuse of the Bongaigaon SSP's name and police officers' photographs came to light during the investigation into the matter, prompting police to take action against the accused.In connection with the case, Bongaigaon Sadar Police Station registered Case No. 263/26. Alam was arrested under Sections 204, 308(7) and 319(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS). Following his arrest, police produced the accused before a court and secured two days of police custody for further interrogation. Investigators are questioning Alam to establish the details of the alleged extortion activities, identify the individuals who may have been targeted and determine whether others were involved in the operation. Police are also examining the possible extent of the alleged racket and the manner in which the identities and photographs of police officers were used.The investigation remains underway, and further details are expected to emerge as officers continue their inquiries.The case highlights concerns over the alleged misuse of police officials' identities to intimidate members of the public and extract money unlawfully. Such incidents can undermine public confidence in law enforcement and cause confusion among people who may believe that demands made in the name of senior officers are genuine.Police are continuing efforts to gather evidence and establish the full circumstances of the case. The allegations against the accused remain subject to the outcome of the investigation and judicial proceedings.

2nd All India Dance Competition and Festival Concludes in Rangia

Lifetime Achievement Award Conferred Posthumously on Zubeen Garg; Kala Gaurav Award Presented to Manisha Hazarika

The Assam Rising, Rangia, October 13 : The second All India Dance Competition and Dance Festival, titled "National Integration Through Art," organised by Lok Kristi Kala Kendra, Rangia, in collaboration with the All India Artists Association (AIAA), concluded successfully at the historic Haradatta–Biradatta Bhawan in Rangia on October 10. The three-day event, held from October 8 to 10, witnessed the participation of artists, dancers and cultural workers from 27 states across the country, showcasing India's rich cultural diversity and traditional dance forms. Artists and dance gurus from Assam also presented various aspects of the state's rich artistic and cultural heritage before the national-level participants. The dance festival held on October 10 featured performances by eminent artists and senior dance instructors from different parts of the country. One of the major highlights of the event was the posthumous conferment of the Sudarshan Gaur Lifetime Achievement Award on beloved singer and cultural icon Zubeen Garg. Although his wife, Garima Saikia Garg, was scheduled to attend the programme and receive the award, she was reportedly unable to do so due to emotional distress following the granting of bail to a person allegedly linked to the case concerning Zubeen Garg's death. The award was received on her behalf by Zubeen Garg's close friend and noted actor-director Deepak Kumar Roy. The Sudarshan Gaur Kala Gaurav Award, instituted by the All India Artists Association, was conferred on eminent singer Manisha Hazarika in recognition of her contribution to the field of music and culture. The AIAA also presented the Indian Heroes Award to Kamrup Zila Parishad Chairman Nipon Bhuyan, noted physician Dr Hiteshendra Kalita, eminent film producer Dhaneswar Kalita, playwright and director Pradip Sharma, and Dapon newspaper's Chief Editor Dinmoni Bhandar Kayastha.Several other distinguished personalities were felicitated with special honours, including retired professor Pabin Kalita, Dr Nilmoni Kalita, actor-director Deepak Kumar Roy, social worker Bhupendra Lahkar, retired teachers Reena Kalita Mahanta and Sabita Barman Mazumdar, Kamrup District Sahitya Sabha president Ramesh Chandra Medhi, and secretary Rajani Shaloi, among others.The award recipients were honoured with traditional Assamese gamochas, selengs, mementoes, citations, Himachali caps, ceremonial garments and certificates. The dance competition was inaugurated by senior dancer and retired teacher Reena Kalita Mahanta by lighting the ceremonial lamp. More than a hundred participants from different parts of the country competed in various categories, presenting classical, folk, contemporary and group dance forms, including Sattriya, Kathak, Bihu, Odissi, Gujarati and Punjabi dances.At the dance festival and closing ceremony, local MLA and celebration committee president Bhavesh Kalita inaugurated the programme after paying floral tributes and lighting ceremonial lamps before the portraits of the organisation's founder, Sudarshan Gaur, legendary singer Bhupen Hazarika and Zubeen Garg. Addressing the gathering, he appreciated the All India Artists Association for organising cultural programmes of national significance and promoting artistic exchange. AIAA president and noted Bollywood actor Rohitashv Gour attended the event as the chief guest. Speaking on the occasion, he highlighted the organisation's history, noting that it was established in 1955 and had continued its cultural activities over the decades. He also recalled the association's connection with legendary singer Bhupen Hazarika. Gour felicitated Jayanta Jit Kalita, Chief Managing Director, and Hemanta Kalita, General Secretary, for organising the national-level event in Assam and expressed his gratitude to the organisers. AIAA vice-president Rekha Gaur and treasurer Naresh Santani also attended the programme. The celebration committee felicitated the invited guests and dignitaries.The souvenir titled "Krititwar Kiran" was released by Rangia Co-District Commissioner Nabajit Pathak. The prize-winning participants were presented with awards, mementoes and certificates of merit. The programme was anchored by Chief Managing Director Jayanta Jit Kalita, General Secretary Hemanta Kalita and member Nayanika Sharma.The gathering of artists from across India generated considerable enthusiasm among local residents and enriched the cultural atmosphere of Rangia. MLA Bhavesh Kalita, Chief Managing Director Jayanta Jit Kalita, General Secretary Hemanta Kalita and other organisers expressed their heartfelt gratitude to all artists, participants, dignitaries, cultural enthusiasts and well-wishers for their cooperation and enthusiasticY participation in making the three-day event a success.
